

“...when Alex Pominov jumped out from the house with a sneer and a broom as Baba Yaga, I knew we were in for a real treat! Vasiliy Yasenev, Edita Rozenberg, and Naum Derzhi really embodied their animal characters – the way Naum slinked onto the stage and purred, Edita’s high energy, and Vasiliy’s subdued energy were perfect. And Larisa Angerova was so cute, especially that moment when she was under the table. The songs were such toe-tapping, hand-clapping fun – and including “Ride of The Valkyries” was such a great touch. With what you did with the direction, sets and props, and costuming, It really felt like an episode of Faerie Tale Theatre. (I don’t know if you’ve seen it, but that’s supposed to be a compliment. I love that show!). And that fight scene between Vaselisa and Baba Yaga was amazing. Such fun! Thank you again for inviting me! I’m really glad I got to see the show.” Natalie de la Garza, Houston Press
